

small books big stories

Making Modern Melbourne

– Jenny Lee

Title Making Modern Melbourne

Author Jenny Lee

Publisher Arcade Publications

ISBN 978-0-9804367-1-6

Available NOW

RRP $18

Available nationally through Dennis Jones & Associates

t: +61 (0)3 9762 9100 f: +61(0)3 9762 9200

theoffice@dennisjones.com.au

'You can read the past in this city, if you know where to look'

Discover the city that was, beneath the city that is. Learn how Melbourne's landscape was literally remade: lopping the top off Batman's hill, reshaping the Yarra and its delta, and imposing the CBD grid on the natural terrain.

- Perfect gift
- Palm-sized A6 format (150 x 105mm)
- 176pp pb
- Counter stands & posters
- Great reviews!

From illegal village to modern metropolis, Melbourne is a city of many layers. Jenny Lee observes them with a sharp eye, sampling the city's marvellous and not-so-marvellous moments and reintroducing some of the unconventional characters who've shaped our 'Queen City of the South'.

'Jenny Lee loves Melbourne ... Her book comes as a small revelation, showing us the city growing up before our eyes.'

– Robyn Annear

'Making Modern Melbourne is a delicious, bite-sized history of our city ... Any good bookshop can sell you this great read, give you change from a $20, and give you a new perspective on what's at the heart of modern Melbourne.'

– The Slow Guide, Melbourne

'A punchy little introduction to the history of Melbourne's settlement and evolution, from the first landing by Lieutenant John Murray in 1802 through to the current day ...'

– Artshub.com.au

Jenny Lee came to Melbourne for a few weeks in 1979 and decided to stay. Since then, she's lived in five houses, raised two daughters and worked variously as an archivist, editor and university lecturer.

For Arcade titles and events visit www.arcadepublications.com
For media enquiries email info@arcadepublications.com